Project Management:

The Good, The Bad & The Ugly

Tuesday, 12 June 2012

Do you know what to look for to see that problems are approaching?

The Society of Construction Law Australia will bring together a panel of construction industry specialists to discuss early warning signs in projects, including real examples of projects where management strategies have been Good, Bad or Ugly.

Contributions from the audience will also be encouraged.

This event will be broadcast simultaneously internationally with the help of video conferencing.

Panel

Brian Kooyman, Director, Tracey Brunstrom & Hammond - Sydney

Mark Griffith, Principal, Hinds Blunden - Sydney

Leighton O'Brien, Allens - Sydney

Associate Professor Paula Gerber, Monash University - Melbourne

Teoh Wooi Sin, Executive Director, Davis Langdon & Seah - Singapore

...plus mystery panellist from London & Hong Kong

Chair: Basil Georgiou, Jackson McDonald - Perth

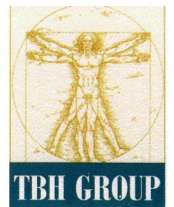

A networking event will follow immediately after the panel discussion above (in NZ, this will precede the discussion). Come along and meet other members of Society of Construction Law.

Places are strictly limited
