A Talk on
“Expert Witness: A bare knuckle prize fight or can we do better?”
By

Nick Powell

Thursday, 4 June 2015

Brief Synopsis

The use of Experts in commercial arbitration is already an established feature. Increasingly we are seeing court matters involve Experts in similar roles. The Access to Justice (1996 Final Report) by Lord Woolf was pretty damning on the use of Experts. So how has it improved and how can it get better?

Learn about:

- The Role and Responsibilities of the Expert Witness
- Difficulties inherent in adversarial justice systems
- Lord Woolf's observations regarding Experts
- Typical Expert systems
- My views on how certain disputes could better use Experts.
